GUIDE TO GOOD PRACTICE WHEN WORKING WITH CHILDREN

When working with children you should:

- Always be publicly open. Avoid any situations where you and an individual child are completely unobserved.

When working with children you should never:

- Engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games
- Allow or engage in any form of inappropriate contact
- Allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged
- Make sexually suggestive comments to a child, even in fun
- Allow allegations made by a child to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon
- Do things of a personal nature that the child can do for itself

It is not good practice to take children alone on car journeys or be alone with them in a situation where you cannot be easily seen and this should be avoided if at all possible.
