

FOXTON PARISH COUNCIL

Co-option Procedure (adopted 2nd April 2017)

A policy setting out the procedure for co-option to a casual vacancy.

Introduction

If no request for an election is received by South Cambridgeshire County Council by the date on the Notice of Vacancy, the Electoral Services Department will advise the Parish Council that it may co-opt to fill the vacancy. Co-option is the process by which the Parish Council selects a new Councillor and it is done as an agenda item within a monthly Parish Council meeting.

The Parish Council manages the process itself and demonstrates that it is fair and equitable by following the procedure set out below.

Procedure

1. Foxton Parish Council invites interested candidates to write to the Clerk or Chairman by a specified date. Letters received from candidates are circulated to Councillors prior to the meeting at which a Parish Councillor is to be co-opted.
2. At the Parish Council meeting candidates are invited to say something about themselves and Councillors have the opportunity to ask questions of the candidates. Each candidate will be allocated a maximum of three minutes.
3. In a closed session of the Parish Council without the public present, members consider the candidates and, following the discussion, the public are invited back into the meeting before the voting takes place.
4. The Chairman will request the Councillors present to nominate any of the candidates. Candidates will require a proposer and seconder to progress to the voting stage. If there is only one vacancy, a Councillor may only nominate or second one candidate. One candidate needs to receive an absolute majority of votes.
5. The Chairman will then place the names of those nominated into alphabetic order and proceed to vote. Councillors will have one vote per vacancy to be filled.
6. Voting will be in accordance with Standing Orders by a show of hands and will continue until one candidate has received an absolute majority of those Councillors present. At this stage the successful candidate will be declared co-opted.
7. Should no candidate receive a majority on the first vote, the candidate with the lowest number of votes is eliminated. Voting will then take place for the remaining candidates until one person receives an absolute majority.
8. The successful candidate is a Councillor in their own right and is no different to any other member of the Parish Council.
